MINERVA VALLEY WIRELESS, INC.

Minerva Valley is pleased to announce the addition of Minerva Valley Wireless, Inc. As anyone who has tried to use a cellular telephone just about anywhere in this area knows, the chances of getting a useable signal are slim, at best. Minerva Valley Wireless is in the beginning stages of solving this problem for our customers.

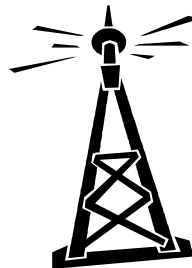

Construction of three towers will begin soon with the hopes of going on line with service this fall. The three towers will be located between Clemons and St. Anthony, just outside of Zearing, and in McCallsburg.

Minerva Valley Wireless will be selling service in conjunction with iWireless. You can visit www.iwireless.com to take a look at the plans and prices that will be available. iWireless is affiliated nationwide with T-Mobile and Cingular.

The addition of wireless to our products will greatly benefit cell phone users in our area. No more dropped calls, trying in vain to find a signal or missing messages because the caller couldn't get through. This service will also provide more service convenience for our customers. Minerva Valley will take care of all questions and service issues will be handled through our local office. No more driving to Ames or Marshalltown, or punching button after button on your telephone just to get an issue taken care of!
